For certain transactions we have the creditworthiness of our customers, subcontractors, suppliers or partners tested. We do this by providing the necessary personal data (including address information) to a creditworthiness evaluator, who can only use this information for this purpose.

4. Goals and Foundations

BAM processes your personal data for the following purposes:

- Sending out our newsletter and other publications.
- To be able to call or email you if necessary to deliver our services.
- Concluding and executing agreements.
- Development and improvement of our services.
- To promote safety, security, health and integrity.

-BAM analyzes your behaviour on the website to improve the website and tailor the range of products and services to your preferences.

The foundations for the processing of your personal data is, depending on the case, the necessity of that processing for concluding and executing our agreement with you, for complying with a legal obligation, to the vital interests of you or any other natural person or to defend the legitimate interests of BAM or our partners, unless your interests, fundamental rights or fundamental freedoms outweigh them.

5. Storage periods

BAM saves your personal data only for as long as necessary to achieve the goals for which your data is collected, to represent the legitimate interests of BAM, and as long as we are legally obliged to do so.

6. Sharing of personal data with third parties

Bam can share your personal data with different third parties, if this is necessary for the execution of an agreement and to comply with any legal obligation. These can be banks, insurers, ICT service providers, accountants, consultants and subcontractors. With these companies processing your data on our behalf, we conclude a data processing agreement to ensure the same level of security and confidentiality of your data. BAM remains responsible for the processing. In addition BAM can share your personal data to other third parties. We do this only with your express consent.

7. Cookies and similar techniques

BAM uses functional, analytical and tracking cookies. A cookie is a small text file that is stored in the browser of your computer, tablet or smartphone on the first visit to this website. BAM uses cookies with a purely technical functionality. These ensure that the website works properly and that, for example, your preferences are remembered.
